- (A) Vacancies for these positions shall be filled in accordance with this regent policy. Searches for the president and chancellors shall also be conducted in accordance with C.R.S. § 24–6–402 (3.5) and any other applicable law.
- (B) The Board of Regents (board) may authorize deviations from the processes defined in this policy except where prohibited by applicable law.
- (C) Internal applicants shall be given the opportunity to compete with qualified external candidates.
- (D) All searches must be conducted in a timely and professional manner that respects the rights of candidates to confidentiality, to the extent permitted by law.

Appointing authority – The appointing authority is the individual or body who shall approve the appointment. For those employees reporting to the Board of Regents, the "appointing authority" means the Board of Regents.

Supervising authority – The supervising authority is the individual or body to whom the employee directly reports. For those employees reporting to the Board of Regents, the "supervising authority" means the Board of Regents. In searches for officers of the university, the Board of Regents is both the appointing and supervising authority. In a chancellor search, the president is both the appointing and supervising authority.

Candidate – A person who applies for any officer of the university or chancellor position or who consents to be considered for such position upon nomination by another and who is deemed qualified for the position, as determined by the search committee.

Finalist – A candidate who has agreed to be advanced for final consideration and potential appointment for the position of president or chancellor. A person who is named as a finalist shall be named in accordance with the requirements of

3.C.3 Search Procedures

(A) Search Committee Chair

The supervising authority shall appoint the search committee chair. In searches for officers of the university, the Board of Regents shall elect from among its members a chair, who shall conduct the meetings of the committee, and a vice chair, who shall assume the duties of the chair in the chair's absence. The primary responsibilities of the chair are to ensure that the best qualified candidates are considered and to:

- (2) oversee the professional and timely operation of the committee;
- (3) guarantee an opportunity for all qualified candidates to receive committee consideration;
- (4) work with the human resources representative and diversity officer to ensure that effective recruitment mechanisms are utilized and that the committee is provided information relevant to the recruitment of underrepresented groups;
- (5) ensure that complete records of meetings and action are maintained;

- (12) make arrangements for a meeting between the supervising authority and the search committee at the conclusion of the search process;
- (13) compile the search committee final report summarizing the process and lessons learned for the benefit of future search committees for submission to the supervising authority; and

(B) Composition of the Search Committee

In the selection of search committee members, the supervising authority shall normally select the committee member from nominations received but may appoint committee members whether nominated or not.

A search committee member takes on great responsibility not just as a representative of a particular constituency but as a representative of all members of the university community.

Each member is expected to participate fully in committee activities and to vote.

In appointing a search committee, the Board of Regents or president, as applicable, will strive to appoint a diverse committee that includes a variety of backgrounds, expertise, and perspectives to represent the interests of the university and the state. The board or president, as applicable, may also appoint additional members if deemed appropriate.

- (b) a statement of interest from the potential committee member;
- (c) a certification from the nominee that no conflict of interest exists;
- (d) an acknowledgement of the substantial time commitments that service on the committee will entail; and
- (e) an acknowledgement that the Board of Regents may replace a member who fails to attend committee meetings or participate meaningfully in the search process.

(2) Chancellors

The president shall appoint the search committee. The chancellor search committee shall consist of at least:

- (a) one officer of the administration who shall serve as the search committee chair;

The president shall request that the campuswide faculty, staff, and student governance groups and alumni organizations nominate potential search committee members from within their memberships. The president may also appoint additional members if deemed appropriate.

(3) University Counsel, Secretary of the Board of Regents, University Treasurer, and Associate Vice President of Internal Audit

The Board of Regents, through consultation with the board chair and president, shall appoint the search committee. The search committee shall consist of at least:

- (a) two regents, one of whom will serve as the search committee chair and the other as vice chair (unless seven or more regents are members of the same political party, the two regents shall not be members of the same political party); and
- (b) the president or the president's designee;

The chair, in consultation with the president:

- (a) may designate an officer of the administration to serve as a voting administrative co-chair of the committee to coordinate the search committee's activities; and
- (b) may appoint such other members to create a diverse committee that includes a variety of backgrounds, expertise, and perspectives relevant to the position.

The search committee chair shall solicit nominations from the faculty, staff, and student systemwide governance groups to serve on the search committee and each governance group shall promptly either nominate one

- (b) the search committee for University Treasurer shall include at least one campus chief financial officer or campus chief financial officer's designee; and
- (c) The search committee for Associate Vice President of Internal Audit shall include at least one campus chief financial officer or campus chief financial officer's designee.

(C) Charge to the Search Committee

For each position for which a search has been authorized, the supervising authority shall issue a charge to the committee and establish the search budget.

The charge will outline in appropriate detail the requirements that the committee shall respect, namely:

- (1) the scope of the search (internal, state/regional, or national) and methods of soliciting nominations;
- (2) diversity, equity, and inclusion expectations for diverse candidate pools;
- (3) target dates for completing each stage of the search process and the schedule of reporting to the supervising authority;
- (4) the number of candidates to be recommended to the supervising authority;
- (5) the arrangements to be followed for campus visits if required;
- (6) the provisions by which the committee will handle communications regarding the search and the evaluation of candidates; and
- (7) information regarding the procedure to follow for committees making use of the services of a professional consultant or search firm.

In addition to the requirements above, when the Board of Regents provides a charge to the presidential search committee, that charge will include involving the Board of Regents at designated points in the search process. Those points will include, at a minimum: 1) meeting with the Board of Regents to review the candidate pool at the point in the search where the committee has sufficiently narrowed the pool and is deciding which candidates will be invited for initial interviews; and 2) referring a list of five unranked candidates to the Board of Regents for the board to consider interviewing.

(D) Search Administrator

The system or campus administration must provide the search committee adequate resources, assistance, and release time to carry out its responsibilities.

The supervising authority shall designate a non-voting search administrator with responsibility for providing staff support to the search committee. The designated search administrator shall:

- (1) manage all logistics requirements;
- (2) maintain procedures for preserving search committee records; and
- (3) provide candidates with information relevant to the search and the university.

(E) Professional Consultant Support

At the discretion of the supervising authority and in consultation with campus or system human resources, a committee may use a professional consultant or search firm. A professional consultant or search firm shall not be used as a substitute for a required search committee.

The Procurement Service Center will maintain an approved list of pre-qualified professional consultants or firms.

(F) Committee Process

Before commencing its search, the committee shall consult with the supervising authority to discuss and clarify the charge, desired academic, financial, legal, management or other professional credentials for candidates, and any other appropriate criteria for screening and selecting candidates. The supervising authority, in consultation with the search committee, will determine the most important qualities needed based on the written job description for the position. In presidential and chancellor searches, the committee must operate in accordance with the provisions of C.R.S. § 24-6-402, Open Meetings Law.

The supervising authority, in conjunction with human resources, will set the anticipated salary range at the outset of a search. The expected salary range will be included in the official job posting as required by Colorado's Equal Pay for Equal Work Act. The committee shall not assume limitations on salary or other conditions that would qualify the considerations of candidates. In extraordinary circumstances the supervising authority, in consultation with Human Resources and the appointing authority, may elect to offer a salary outside the specified range. A candidate's current salary or salary history shall not be used as a factor in setting the final hiring salary.

All members of the search committee are to be trained on the impacts of bias in hiring processes and specific ways that biases may manifest both among committee members and in the applications of candidates.

The search committee shall work within a search plan consistent with the charge to the committee and applicable law. The search plan should include:

- (1) inviting candidates from historically marginalized or excluded groups to apply;
- (2) reaching out to historically marginalized or excluded serving institutions for candidate recommendations; and
- (3) reaching out to current and retired university faculty, staff, and community members from historically marginalized or excluded groups to recommend candidates and share the job announcement with their networks.

At the conclusion of the search, a custodian of records shall allow public inspection of the aggregate demographic data of the candidates interviewed by the search committee for an executive position as defined in C.R.S. § 24-72-202 (1.3), but who are not named as a finalist pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-6-402 (3.5). "Demographic data" means information on a candidate's race and gender that has been legally requested and voluntarily provided on the candidate's application and does not include the candidate's name or other identifying information.

(G) Candidate Selection

The search committee emphasis shall be on attracting and selecting qualified candidates. The search committee will recommend to the supervising authority the candidates it determines are best qualified to fill the position. In selecting and recommending such candidates, the search committee will strive to select and recommend a diverse pool of candidates with a variety of backgrounds, expertise, and perspectives to represent the interests of the university and the state, consistent with regent law and policy.

The supervising authority will determine which of the recommended candidates will be interviewed and in what order. The supervising authority shall also have the authority to interview highly-qualified candidates who were not recommended by the search committee.

Requirements for president and chancellor searches are set forth in C.R.S. § 24-6-402 (3.5) and C.R.S. § 24-72-204 (3)(a)(XI)(A).

(H) Final Selection

The supervising authority will evaluate the candidates by means of personal interviews and by such other information as may be obtained. Before making a final selection, the supervising authority will meet with the search committee. In the case of searches for chancellors, the president will consult with the regents in the final selection process, and the regents may be involved in interviewing candidates recommended by the president if they so desire and may also ask the search committee for additional candidates. The supervising authority or their designee shall be solely responsible for discussion with the candidates concerning conditions and perquisites of employment.

The determination of which candidates will be designated as the finalist(s) for officers of the university shall be made by the Board of Regents, and the determination of finalists for chancellor shall be made by the president. Before any candidate is identified as a finalist, the chair of the search committee shall notify the candidate and obtain the candidate's permission to advance them as a public finalist.

Policy 3.H: Compensation for Officers of the Administration Returning to Their Faculty Positions

- 3.H.1 An administrator (Officer of the Administration) who holds a tenured position at the University of Colorado has the right to return to their tenured faculty position upon conclusion of their administrative appointment. Letters of offer or addenda for this type of administrative appointment shall include reference to this policy.
- 3.H.2 The letter of offer or addenda should include a method to determine the faculty salary upon the administrator's return to the faculty. The method must be mutually agreed upon by the faculty member, the appointing authority in consultation with the dean of the school/college and the chair/director of the unit in which the faculty is rostered; reviewed by university counsel for consistency and compliance with statute; and approved and signed by the chancellor.
- (A) Upon the return to the faculty, only under extraordinary circumstances (e.g., a change in home department; a change in statute) may the campus chancellor authorize and approve exceptions to this agreed upon method.
- (B) For a chancellor who is a tenured faculty member, the letter of offer or addenda should satisfy sections 3.H.1, 3.H.2, and 3.H.2(A) of this policy, with the exception that the president would sign the letter of offer or addenda. Upon the return to the faculty, only under extraordinary circumstances (e.g., a change in home department; a change in statute) may the president authorize and approve exceptions to the agreed upon method.
- 3.H.3 If a letter of offer or addenda for this type of administrative appointment does not contain a mutually agreed upon return salary method, the faculty return salary shall be determined by the appointing authority in consultation with the dean of the college/school and the chair/director of the unit in which the faculty position is rostered. The appropriate salary shall be based upon the faculty member's academic and administrative experience, expertise, and standing in the discipline. The faculty member's salary shall be within the salary range of faculty of the same rank in the academic unit and shall be no higher than the highest salary in the academic unit.
- (A) Only under extraordinary circumstances (e.g., a change in home department; a change in statute), may the campus chancellor (or the president in the case of the chancellor returning to their faculty position) authorize and approve exceptions to this policy.
- 3.H.4 Compensation for differential assignments upon return to the faculty are not subject to this policy.
