INTEGRATED AUDIO

Now you have an extended choice of audio conferencing for your online meetings. With GoToMeeting’s integrated audio, choose between phone conferencing and Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) or allow both options.

Note: If you choose to use your own conference service provider for the meeting, GoToMeeting will include your dial-in numbers with the meeting information; however, GoToMeeting audio features (such as VoIP and integrated audio controls) do not apply.

VOIP BEST PRACTICES

Audio quality can vary based on your audio software or hardware manufacturer as well as your operating system. When using VoIP, the following best practices are recommended:

- As with any online meeting solution, it is important to test your sound quality and audio settings before your live meeting. In addition to testing your audio settings from the GoToMeeting Audio tab (see page 5 of this guide for details), it is recommended to start your meeting ahead of time with a few test attendees to provide feedback on your voice quality.
- For optimum sound quality, a headset is recommended, preferably a USB headset for ease of use.
- If a headset is not available, a microphone and speakers are required, preferably a USB microphone for ease of use.
- If using a microphone, it should be at least 1.5 feet away from any speakers that are built into or connected to your computer.
- The use of a Webcam microphone is not recommended.
- If you plan to record your meeting, be sure to start your meeting ahead of time and test the recording feature.
USING VoIP
1. Expand the audio pane in your Control Panel.
2. Select Use Mic & Speakers (b)
3. You will be automatically connected into the conference call using VoIP.

Note: PC organizers may change the audio input and output from the Audio preferences tab which is accessed from the File menu. Mac organizers may manage the audio input and output directly from the audio pane (c) or from the Audio menu in the toolbar.

USING TELEPHONE
1. Expand the audio pane in your Control Panel.
2. Select Use Telephone (a)
3. Dial in to the conference call with the information provided.

Once in a conference call, participants and organizers can enter commands using their phone keypads.

USE PRESENTER CONTROLS
The Control Panel Grab Tab enables organizers and presenters to minimize the Control Panel to the side of their desktops to display their full desktops to attendees and still access Presenter Screen Tools.

- Click and drag to move Grab Tab up or down (a)
- Click to hide or display Control Panel (b)
- Shows On Air status (c)
- The Show My Screen button displays desktop to attendees.
- Right-click to display multiple monitors, a specific application or a clean screen (d)
- The Stop Showing Screen button stops desktop display (e)
- The Give Keyboard & Mouse button grants shared mouse/keyboard control to another attendee (f)

- The Drawing Tools button allows the presenter to draw, highlight and place arrows on the screen, as well as use the spotlight and clear all markings (not available for Mac users) (h)

If you’re using Mac OS 10.4, your grab tab and expanded Control Panel will be visible to attendees as a black silhouette. At times, parts of the Control Panel can be fully visible (not blacked out) to attendees. This can obstruct a portion of what you are presenting. We recommend that OS 10.4 users leave the Control Panel collapsed as much as possible during the meeting. If you have a multi-monitor setup, we recommend keeping the Control Panel on your second monitor. The silhouetted Control Panel is not an issue for Mac OS 10.5 or newer.

END A MEETING
- From a PC, select the File menu from the menu bar, and click End Meeting.
- From a Mac, select the GoToMeeting menu on the toolbar, select Quit GoToMeeting; or select File and then Leave Meeting. You may also click the red X in the top left corner of the Control Panel and Viewer Window.
